World Piece Discusses the Presidential Election

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Illinois Wesleyan University's International Society will host a Homecoming edition of its program World Piece on Friday, Oct. 3 at 11 a.m. in the Beckman Auditorium located in the basement of The Ames Library (1 Ames Plaza, Bloomington).

The program is free and open to the public.

Senior political science major Rebecca Tong will host the discussion titled "The 2008 U.S. Presidential Election Through the Eyes of the IWU International Students."

World Piece is a monthly student-led discussion program that focuses on contemporary global issues. The program emphasizes the exchange of knowledge about other cultures and their ideas.

For additional information, contact Maureen Bradley of the International Office at (309) 556-3190.
